The Wasioja Civil War Days (WCWD) Committee is organizing a large event to commemorate the 150th year celebration of the Civil War. In April 1861, President Lincoln put out a notice saying he needed volunteers to fight. Wasioja responded, and set up recruitment in the local law office, which is now referred to as the Wasioja Recruiting Station. The men and boys signed up, forming Company C of the Second Minnesota Volunteer Infantry Regiment.

Your pledge of money will help finance the 2011 event with Civil War living history re-enactments, education, and other special events. It will be because of your generosity that we will be able to have this historic event. All sub-committees will be working with a budget, and the main committee will oversee that appropriate use of the donations will be used respectively. Any amount given will be gladly accepted.

You can donate your pledge of money as a one-time gift, or you can spread it over a 3-year period, and make payments to the name listed on the pledge card. When your payment is complete, you will receive the gifts for which ranking you have pledged. At any time you may increase your pledge and receive the next highest ranking.
